

10/2/2018

17-cv-2393 (JMF)

Washington v. Walgreens et al

USDC SDNY
DOCUMENT
ELECTRONICALLY FILED
DOC #:
DATE FILED: 10/04/2018

To whom it may concern:

I Ciera Washington am writing this affidavit to assure you of a payment arrangement that I can keep and meet every month to counsel that is in my budget until payment is complete of what I owe for my sanction the payment schedule I am agreeing to is what I can afford and pay on a timely basis due to not being employed as of right now and I am not on any public assistance at this present moment the budget I have is based on my mother's help to pay this sanction I will agree to pay on time to counsel with this agreement schedule below .

November 1st, 2018- $35.00November 15th 2018-$35.00November 30th 2018- $35.00December 14th 2018- $35.00December 30th 2018- $35.00January 10th 2018- $35.00January 25th 2018- $35.00February 5th 2018 - $35.00February 23rd 2018- $35.00March 3rd 2018- $35.00March 15th 2018-$35.00March 29th 2018-$35.00April 3rd 2018- $35.00April 15th 2018- $35.00April 28th 2018- $35.00

May 7th 2018- $35.00

May 25th 2018- $35.00

June 3rd 2018- $35.00

June 19th 2018 - $35.00

June 30th 2018 - $35.00

July 7th 2018 - $35.00

July 23rd 2018 - $35.00

August 3rd 2018- $35.00

August 16th 2018- $35.00

August 29th 2018- $35.00

Here are 26 payment arrangements for up to 10 months or until case is settled and payment is complete thank you.

Sincerely

Ciera Washington

17-CV-2393

Plaintiff is granted leave to pay the sanction on the schedule set forth herein. She shall provide payment to her counsel, who shall forward the payment within three business days to defense counsel. Defense counsel shall advise the Court of any missed payments.

SO ORDERED.

October 4, 2018